AN ACT

For the Inlargement of the Periods of Time.

Limited in an Act for the better execution of his Majesties gracious Declaration for the Settlement of his Kingdom of Ireland, &c.

WHereas in an Act made this present Parliament, intituled, An Act For the better Execution of his Majesties Gracious Declaration for the Settlement of his Kingdom of Ireland, and satisfaction of the several interests of Adventurers, Souldiers, and others his Majesties Subjects there, several Periods of time are appointed and limited for the proceeding upon, determining and setling of the Interests of sundry Persons who are provided for by the said Act, and for the payment of such Sums of Money as are to be paid unto his Majestie, or others by his appointment: And for that by reason of the retarding of the Execution of the said Act, by many emergent occasions which have intervened, it may so fall out, that the times so appointed by the said Act, may not be long enough for the due and orderly performance and determination of those things, for which by the said Act they were limited, and thereby much prejudice may arise to several persons and interests therein concerned: Be it therefore Enacted by the Kings most excellent Majestie, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of this Kingdom, and six or more of the Council for the time being being, as occaſion ſhall require, may by Act or Acts of Council from time to time to be made, inlarge all or any of the ſaid ſeveral Periods of time in and by the ſaid Act appointed, ſo far as they in their wiſdoms ſhall finde neceſſary. Provided, That none of the ſaid Periods of time be ſo inlarged beyond the ſpace of twelve moneths in the whole, next enſuing from and after the ſeveral and reſpective times whereunto by the ſaid Act they are limited. And forasmuch as there is not any time limited for the Determining and ſettling of ſome other particulars mentioned in the ſaid Act, which may very much obſtruct the Settlement intended; Be it therefore Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of this Kingdom and Council as aforeſaid, may by Act or Acts of Council from time to time to be made, limit and appoint ſuch Period or Periods of time for the adiudging, determining and ſettling of the Qualifications of Innocent Proteſtants and Papiſts, and the repriſing of ſuch perſons as ſhall be removed thereupon, as they in their iudgements ſhall think fit; ſo as the ſaid Period or Periods of time ſo limited, do not exceed the ſpace of twelve moneths next, after the firſt ſitting of the Commiſſioners appointed for the putting of the ſaid Act in execution, upon the execution of the ſaid Act. And it is by the Authority aforeſaid further Enacted and Declared, That the Period or Periods of time which ſhall be limited, and the ſaid Periods of time which ſhall be inlarged by virtue of this Act, in ſuch manner as aforeſaid, ſhall be as good and effectual to all intents and purpoſes, as if the ſame had been particularly inſerted into, and appointed by the ſaid Act, any thing in the ſaid Act contained to the contrary notwithſtanding. And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That no Letters Patents paſſed under the Great Seal of England or Ireland, to any perſon or perſons whatſoever, of any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments ſettled upon, or confirmed unto, or intended to be ſettled upon, or confirmed unto Sir Theophilus Jones Knight, his heirs and aſſigns, by his Majeſties gracious Declaration of the thirtieth of November, One thouſand ſix hundred and ſixty, certified in one Act of Parliament, intituled, An Act for the better execution of his Majeſties gracious Declaration for the ſettlement of his Kingdom of Ireland, and ſatisfaction of the ſeveral Interests of Adventurers, Souldiers, and other his Subjects there, ſhall be of any force or validity to hinder the ſaid Sir Theophilus Jones, his heirs or aſſigns, from intoying the full benefit intended to the ſaid Sir Theophilus Jones, his heirs and aſſigns, by his Majeſties ſaid Declaration; any thing in the ſaid Act contained to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.
